THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 27.

THE TROUBLES OF A WEST VIRGINIA STATESMAN.-We have mentioned the fact that an investigation had been ordered by the lower house of the West Virginia Legislature. of a very scandalous charge against a leading member, Mr. Ferguson, to wit, that he had been indicted in a Kentucky court last year, for stealing the valise and overcoat of a gentleman with whom he was travelling, in an Ohio Cuba New Sugars. steamer-and that he had escaped a trial by pleading a pardon obtained from the Governor of Kentucky. Furguson, it will be remembered, declared before the Legislature that he did not know whether he "took" the articles or not, being so drunk that he had no recollection of what occurred. The committee have made a report in which they neither exonerate nor convict the distinguished member, but three of the four members sign the following:

The undersigned, members of the committee, concur in the following, viz: That without deciding on the actual guilt or innocence of Mr. Ferguson, a question that they have no means fully to investigate, they yet think that the legal aspect of the case, from the evidence before the committee, is such that a proper regard for the honor of the House would lead Mr. Ferguson to disembarrass it of the implication now resting upon it, by resigning his seat. T. M. Harris, S. S. Spencer, J. M. Bicke.

Ferguson expressed his surprise at the re-port, declared that he had no idea oft resigning, and so the matter dropped.

His assortment of COOKING STOVES, will embrace every variety, and of the best descriptions. He would onumerate; smong them, Noble Cook Stove, the best that was ever in use, and well deserving its name—the LILLY, the PALMETTO, and others.

His TIN WARE will be found equal, if not superior, to any ever offered for sale in Alexandria, and housekeepers can have any description of ware of that kind, which they may need. he invites an examination of his goods, and presents such a selection as cannot fail to please.
All kinds of ROOFING and SPOUTING, executed in the best manner and on the lowest An experience of forty years in this business, enables him to claim that he has a practical knowledge of it, in all in his branches. He is desirous of not only accommodating, but giving satisfaction to his customers and to all purchasers, and they may be assured that what he sells them will be of the best materials and of the best manufacture. He will warrant whatever he sells. It will be his object to secure patronage by constant and personal attention to his establishment. With this announcement he will open his Manufactory, willing to show by his efforts that the patronage he asks, will redound to the advantage of those who buy, as well as of him who sells, and that the citizens of Alexandria and its vicinity, need not go elsowhere to purchase what can be procured in their own city, from one of their own people.
